Talent and Culture

Supporting talent and promoting culture is the strategic centre of the activity carried out by Banco Sabadell Foundation. Our commitment to these areas has consolidated and continued to grow since 2019. Our commitment has been sealed through our support and collaboration with different entities who promote projects of this nature.

The projects and collaborations which we have supported during 2019 have been characterised by their excellence, efficiency, determination and our close relationship with the entities and the beneficiaries.

We do not believe in culture without talent or talent without culture. Knowledge and talent are the foundations of progress in society. They are both pools of knowledge which feed each other and drive social progression. This is clear through our commitment to talented people under 42, through granting scholarships and awards.

The projects and collaborations which we have supported during 2019 have been characterised by their excellence, efficiency, determination and our close relationship with the entities and the beneficiaries.

This report aims to be a useful source of information so that the reader can gain an insight into the projects led by Banco Sabadell Foundation, the entities with which it collaborates and the persons who benefit from these collaborations.

Imagine Circular Economy: Disruptive innovation programme in the Circular Economy sector for projects that help to raise awareness and trigger new forms of consumption and responsible use among citizens

“It has been a great opportunity. To begin with I thought I would take part for the experience, for what I might learn. As time went by, I found myself feeling more and more at ease with my team”

Cayetana Lloris, dreamer de Imagine Express

The stories that matter

Collaboration with the World Press Photo Exhibition 2019 in Barcelona, the international photo-journalism exhibition

The 140 award-winning photographs from this exhibition were chosen from 78,801 images entered for the competition, taken by 4,738 international photographers

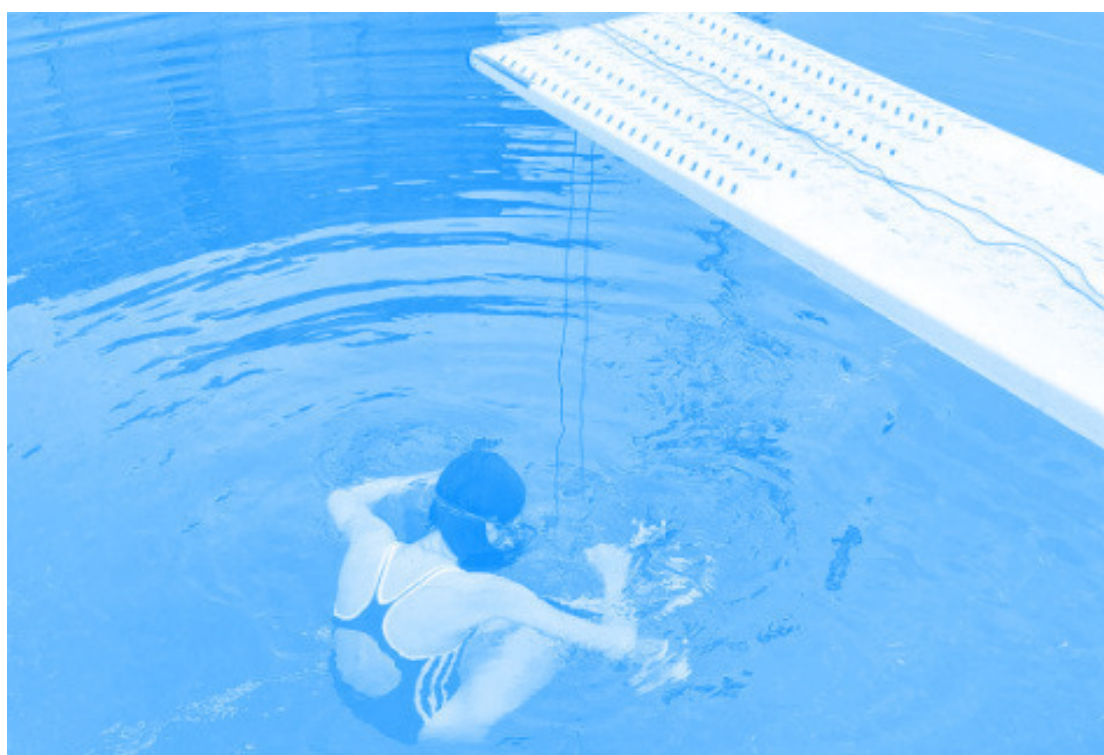

The winning photograph of this most prestigious international photojournalism competition was a photo taken by John Moore, in which a small child is seen crying at the border between Mexico and the United States.

Exhibitions and activities for all

We collaborate with Espai 13 on the 'Dibuja de Lina Bo Bardi' exhibition and the 'Famimiró' project.

Espai 13 is a cycle of exhibitions which aims to explore in fine detail the relationship between knowledge and power
'Drawing at her fingertips: Works by Lina Bo Bardi', an exhibition focused on the illustrious architect and designer.
Famimiró, activities for schools and families.

Abortion, the beauty of lines and the 80s in photography

Exhibitions, touring exhibitions and programmes from DONE, Correspondencias and ImagenRed. Three exhibitions took place in 2019: 'On Abortion', 'La Belleza de las Líneas' and 'La movida. Crónica de una Agitación'.

'On Abortion', the renowned visual research project by Laia Abril, which documents and conceptualises the dangers and harm caused to women as a result of not being able to access abortion legally, safely and freely.

'La Belleza de las Líneas', with photographs from the Gilman & González-Falla collection. The exhibition assembles a selection of masterpieces encompassing all genres and generations.

'La Movida. Crónica de una Agitación'. 1978-1988'. A collection of the work of four key photographers from the La Movida era: Alberto García-Alix, Ouka Leele, Pablo Pérez-Mínguez and Miguel Trillo. The exhibition offers a glimpse of this historic period from the perspective of photography, encompassing radically different settings and viewpoints.

The literary festival full of cultural activities

Festival Eñe, the literature and music festival and PHotoESPAÑA 'Proyecciones'

The 11th edition of the Festival Eñe literary festival was held in Madrid, reaching a diverse audience through cultural activities featuring high-quality content and innovative formats.

PHotoESPAÑA 'Proyecciones'. Four artists and a variety of groups took part in this event at the Royal Botanical Garden of Madrid, using light, projections, installations and video-mapping.

Meeting space for young artists

Encontro de Artistas Novos (EAN) is a meeting space for emerging creative artists to debate and discuss contemporary art over a period of 5 days. Directed by Rafael Doctor.

For the ninth consecutive year, the City of Culture of Galicia became a meeting space for new artists.

The IX Encontro de Artistas Novos - #EAN9, coordinated by Rafael Doctor, was held from 25 to 29 August 2019.

Emerging creative artists had the opportunity to showcase their work and debate topics related to contemporary art over a four-day period, sharing and exchanging knowledge and ideas with other cultural agents.

‘Gala+IN’, talent and functional diversity

The IV edition of IMPULSA, promoted by the Fundació Catalunya Cultura in collaboration with the Banco Sabadell Foundation, took place.

More than one hundred entrepreneurs interested in cultural sponsorship were able to learn about 10 high-quality and high-profile cultural projects at growth stage.

The Gala + IN cultural project received the IMPULSA CULTURA 2019 Award.

Success stories in the cultural and creative industries

The Foro de Expertos is a space dedicated to dialogue around new business models for culture, the arts and entertainment. Pacesetters from the cultural and creative industries present success stories and discuss the challenges and obstacles that they have had to confront.

Santiago García de Leaniz, filmmaker and founder of the production company La Iguana, led a Foro de Expertos discussion on “The creative process in independent film production”.

Foro de Expertos “Soundpainting, the art of multi-disciplinary composition in real time” by Ricardo Gassent, member of the Academia de las Artes Escénicas de España and Founder of Soundpaintingmadrid.

Wine becomes art at the Foro de Expertos organised by the Factoría Cultural de Murcia. The founder of Damajuana · Tinta de Vino (‘Wine Ink’), speaks about the role of design in denoting a sense of place and territorial identity, and as a means of cultural expression.

Quantum physics and art

The Centro de Cultura Contemporánea de Barcelona (CCCB) hosts the Quantum exhibition.

It offers visitors the keys to understanding the principles of quantum physics, through the joint creative work of scientists and artists.

The project invites the public to awaken their curiosity and to explore and critically evaluate the new paradigms of contemporary science.

Schubert and young talent

The Santa María de Vilabertran canonical church hosts the 27th edition of the Schubertiada de Vilabertran, the festival that pays homage to Franz Schubert.

The Schubertiada opened with the participation of Christiane Karg, a German operatic soprano.

The event also featured Gerold Huber, a renowned pianist who studied with Friedemann Berger at the Munich University of Music and the Performing Arts and attended Lied masterclasses with Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau in Berlin.

Young people and science

The first edition of the 'Parlament Científic Jove Català' is a programme designed to prepare young people to participate, as active citizens, in the knowledge society through debate, negotiation and scientific knowledge in a broad range of fields.

Contribute to the ability of students to form reasoned opinions and evaluate complex matters.

Promote interaction between scientists and young people.

Bermejo, rebel genius of the XV century

The Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya (MNAC) hosted an exhibition of the work of 'Bartolomé Bermejo', previously shown at the Museo del Prado de Madrid.

His work stands out for its extraordinary technical accomplishment and its iconographic originality.

The exhibition assembled work from a variety of museums worldwide.

'Piedad Desplà', is one of his masterpieces, restored in 2016 thanks to the collaboration of the Banco Sabadell Foundation.

Recognising young composers

The Catalan composer Guillem Góngora won the XVII Joan Guinjoan International Award for young composers, organised by the Catalonia College of Music (ESMUC).

'Processus', is a piece composed with spectral harmonics and computer-generated material.

This award highlights the talent of young composers, revolving around the Catalan composer Joan Guinjoan.

Recognising young pianists

The 65th edition of the Maria Canals International Piano Competition

88 pianists of 33 different nationalities took part in this edition of the competition.

The competition consists of two elimination rounds, one semi-final and a grand final with orchestra accompaniment, which take place at the Palau de la Música Catalana.

During the week-long Competition Barcelona becomes the capital city of the piano, with different activities organised for a variety of audiences, including the distribution of more than 100 grand pianos at various locations throughout the city so that anyone who knows how to play may have the opportunity to do so.

“It is very important that institutions provide young musicians with opportunities such as this one, particularly in a concert venue as iconic as the Palau de la Música. It is clear that there is real passion for music here”

Aleksandr Kliuchko, finalist of the 65th edition of the Maria Canals International Piano Competition.

Photographic map of the individual and their background

The Photoalicante International Photography Festival holds its sixth edition with a new concept: The Body, a photographic map of the individual and their background.

20 exhibitions in different cultural spaces throughout Alicante bringing photography to a diverse public.

We promote social innovation

42 social enterprises from all over Spain took part in the third edition of the B-Value programme, which we led jointly with the Ship2B Foundation with the aim of helping the participants to implement new models to promote professionalism and sustainability.

Over a period of 10 months, the enterprises received training and mentoring from various professionals, which has helped them to rethink their projects and develop a more professional value proposition.

42 social enterprises, 10 finalists, 88 mentors from different sectors, 18 trainers.

5 enterprises received an award at this edition: Factoría F5, Hogar Sí, Fundación INTRAS, Instituto IAP and Fundación ADCOR.

“It has been a game changer. We have already introduced many of the things we learnt in other processes of our organisation, so it is having an awesome impact”

Esclerosis Múltiple de Navarra, a finalist enterprise in the III edition of B-Value

Taking classical music to a diverse audience

20 students from the Reina Sofía School of Music took part in the fourth edition of the 'Musical Entrepreneurship, Leadership and Innovation Programme'.

The Programme, which is part of the Master's Degree in Music Performance, aims to provide music students with the tools and skills to develop their artistic career and to take classical music out into society.

The students, divided into 6 groups, created innovative projects: 'Breaking ground', 'Dancing music', 'Smells and tastes of Jerez', 'Neighbourhood art', 'Purple' and 'Palo Santo'.

“The Innovation and Entrepreneurship programme teaches our students that, if they really want to, they can be a lot more creative than they thought possible in the artistic, social and technology fields”

Julia Sánchez, Director General of the Reina Sofía School of Music.

Culture and Education, two inter-linked areas

'A Tempo – Arts i Formació' is a project that aims to generate and promote spaces for interaction between education and culture.

It represents a break from the notion that education and culture are separate fields. To achieve its aim, this project promotes exchanges between students, teachers and performing arts professionals to create spaces where students can enjoy new cultural experiences and first-hand involvement in theatre. The 'A Tempo' training projects are intended for education professionals and offer different courses and seminars to promote artistic education in training centres.

Talent accelerator

Celera, the talent accelerator, is the first programme to accelerate people rather than projects.

Participants receive tailored training, and talks, workshops, courses and activities are organised to provide guidance for the development of their skills. Profiles of outstanding young people from a diverse range of fields, such as physics, mathematics, engineering, psychology, economics, communications, medicine or entrepreneurship.

“At Celera we are taught that there is nothing more powerful than a talented person who is self-aware and who knows what they want in life, and this is precisely what we, as a generation, are learning together”

Rosa Narváez, one of the 10 young people selected for the fifth generation of Celera.

I ANFACO & Banco Sabadell Foundation Design Award

The Foundation awarded the 1st ANFACO & Banco Sabadell Foundation Design Award to recognise and promote creative talent among young designers and to give them an opportunity to showcase their work.

The best designs for a commemorative poster to celebrate 115 years of ANFACO-CECOPESCA, based on the slogan “CATA LA LATA” (‘taste the tin’) were selected and subsequently displayed at the ANFACO museum in 2019.

“I think it is a wonderful professional acknowledgement and seeing your work valued in this way is very motivating. It is important to foster the talent of young people in institutions that are able to help them kick-start their professional careers. Sadly I think this is the opposite of what tends to happen in the design industry, where young people are often taken advantage of and they do not get the reward or recognition that they deserve for their work”

Javier Fernández, 1st ANFACO & Banco Sabadell Foundation Design Award.

XVIII Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Economic Research

The Banco Sabadell Foundation presented the XVIII Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Economic Research.

Recognises and pays tribute to the work of researchers building knowledge in the economic, business, legal and social fields.

Dr. Irma Clots-Figueras was awarded the prize for her quantitative research work on gender-related aspects of the political economy. Her work is an example of the usefulness of economic research techniques for the rigorous analysis of important and socially-relevant questions.

“It is an honour and immensely satisfying to receive this prize. It gives me huge motivation to continue with my research as I believe it is very important to promote the work of young researchers in this country”

Dr. Clots-Figueras, XVIII Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Economic Research.

III Banco Sabadell Award for Science and Engineering

The Banco Sabadell Foundation presented the III Award for Science and Engineering, in collaboration with the Barcelona Institute of Science and Technology (BIST), in recognition of young researchers resident in Spain working in disciplines such as mathematics, chemistry, physics and engineering.

Career development award to promote, discover and assist in developing talent.

Professor David Pérez García, Doctor of Mathematics at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, was awarded the prize in recognition of his contributions in the field of Mathematics and Quantum Information, in particular the mathematical development of tensor theory applied to condensed matter.

“Initiatives such as this award promote something that I believe is very important, namely, the social recognition of research. I believe that placing an emphasis on young researchers is crucial as it is the features of youth itself, such as the need to know and understand, the need to break moulds and an energetic approach, that are fundamental when it comes to researching at the frontiers of human knowledge”

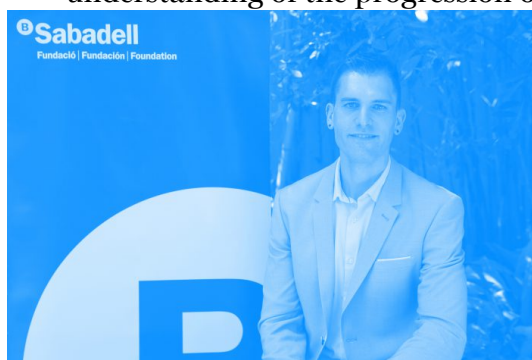

Dr. Pérez, III Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Science and Engineering.

XIV Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Biomedical Research

The Banco Sabadell Foundation presented the XIV Award for Biomedical Research, one of the most important awards granted in Spain in the biomedical sector.

Career development award to a young scientist (below 42 years of age), who has built his/her career in Spain and who shows significant promise for future development.

Dr. Arkaitz Carracedo Pérez was awarded the prize in recognition of his innovative work in the field of oncology, where his contributions to the understanding of the progression of prostate cancer have been pioneering.

“Receiving this prize provides an added impetus to continue working in the highly complex and ambitious field of cancer prevention and the identification of cancer treatments”

Dr. Carracedo, XIV Banco Sabadell Foundation Award for Biomedical Research.
